

VOLUNTEER

Job description

CLONMEL JUNCTION FESTIVAL

Clonmel Junction Festival is looking for enthusiastic committed individuals who are willing to help out during the Festival which takes place this year from July 2nd to 11th.

A typical volunteer schedule would include at least four 3-hour shifts and some availability before the start of the Junction would be an advantage. This experience is guaranteed to be rewarding, as you will meet new people and partake in challenging activities. If short-listed, you will be required to attend a short interview and at least two briefing meetings.

Volunteers will be deployed in 3 teams each led by a member of the Clonmel Junction Festival's staff:

	TEAM	AREA	DUTIES
1.	CHADWICKS The Old Chadwicks, the festival's theatre and HQ	Theatre, Indoor play area, Café, Car park	Café and Playlounge supervision Ushering, Stewarding Maintenance General tidy up Selling and checking tickets
2.	HOSPITALITY	Various	Checking/preparing accommodation Checking/preparing venues Transport of artists Catering
3.	PRODUCTION	Helping technical crew	Installation, Running messages Taking down of equipment Firedrawing support/construction Procession stewarding
	CAFES CARTE BLANCHE (C.C.B II)	This year's CCB project offers a training fortnight in 7 thematic cafés. For more information please check the Trainee's Application Form or the Cafés Carte Blanche's page on www.junctionfestival.com .

N.B: Junction will, to the best of its ability, deploy applicants in their preferred area of work. However, Junction reserves the right to deploy people in those areas where they are most needed, or to change people's duties at short notice as the need arises. Volunteers may be asked to do other duties as requested by their team leader.

Please send or drop the following form into our Office or at the Common Thread Café, 20 or 15 Parnell St., Clonmel Tel: 052-61-29339 Or send by email to: anissa@junctionfestival.com
